If you have an interest in American Warmbloods, you may want to consider becoming a member of the American Warmblood Registry. The AWR was founded to support and promote the breeding and enjoyment of American Warmblood Sporthorses. The AWR's goal is to develop the American Warmblood Sporthorse to the highest possible standard in North America through careful maintenance of their registries, studbooks and the annual Breeding Stock Inspections.

The AWR serves their members through promotion, marketing services, education, and the recognition of excellence with special breeding honors and performanc
